Insurance and Risk Management Solutions for Independent Schools

In partnership with United Educators, Hartford Insurance Company and Scholastic First Insurance Program, the Gallagher Education team has created a state-of-the-art insurance and risk management solution for independent schools. The program affords independent schools best-in-class coverage, tailored risk management programs and access to experienced risk management professionals committed to helping you protect institutional assets while minimizing your long-term cost of risk.

We understand independent schools. In collaboration with our insurance markets, we created a sustainable, cost-effective risk management solution that combines the judicious use of insurance along with strong risk management practices to afford you a program both broad in scope and flexible enough to meet the challenges ahead.
