Your duty of fair presentation

We have set out below the applicable duty of disclosure that you have as regards insurers, where your policy is governed by the laws of England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland. Where your policy is governed by a different law, your duty of disclosure may be different and we will discuss the requirements with you. You must tell us within 14 days of you becoming aware if the information provided by you changes after you purchase your policy and during the period of your policy. You should be aware that if the information provided by you is not complete and accurate, we may cancel your policy and refuse to pay any claim, or not pay any claim in full, or revise the premium and/or excess, or revise the extent of cover or terms of this insurance. We recommend that you keep a record (including copies of letters) of all the information you provide to us for your future reference.

Your data matters

We are the data controller of any personal information you provide to us. We collect and process information in order to provide insurance policies and to process claims. Personal data is also used for business purposes such as fraud prevention, detection, financial management, to generate risk modelling, conduct analytics including to advise, improve, and develop our products and services and to comply with regulatory obligations. This may involve sharing information with, and obtaining information from, our group companies and third parties such as insurers, other brokers, loss adjusters, credit reference agencies, service providers, professional advisors, our regulators, or fraud prevention agencies. We may record telephone calls to help us monitor and improve the service we provide as well as for regulatory purposes. Please see our Privacy Notice for further information on how your personal data is used, shared, disclosed, and retained, and on your rights in relation to your personal data and how to contact our data protection officer. Our Privacy Notice can be found at <https://ajg.com/se-en/eea-privacy-notice/>. From time to time we may make important updates to our Privacy Notice and these may in turn affect the way we use and handle your data. Please ensure you review our Privacy Notice periodically to ensure you are aware of any changes. If you are providing us with personal data of another individual that would be covered under the insurance policy we may be placing or services we may provide to you, you shall ensure that you have obtained all appropriate consent, where required, tell them that you are providing their information to us and show them a copy of this notice. You must not share personal data with us that is not necessary for us to offer, provide or administer our services to you.
